100 YEARS – 100 QUILTS

Quilt Challenge

What ANZAC Means To You

Lest We Forget
QUILT CHALLENGE
100 Years, 100 Quilts

This is an open challenge meaning all residents of Australia and New Zealand are invited - whether you are a beginner, intermediate or advanced quilter, young or old - to contribute to this exhibition of small quilts. A quilt entry in this challenge will reflect what ANZAC means to you. 100 pieces will be selected and shown at AQC in Melbourne, April 16 - 19, 2015, and will then tour at selected craft events around Australia and New Zealand.

Although there is no cash prize pool attached to this challenge, commemorating ANZAC has special significance as 2015 remembers servicemen and women from all wars and conflicts over the past 100 years from the ANZAC experience to present day.

Organiser Judy Newman comments: "The spirit of ANZAC and Anzac Day ceremonies have particular relevance in Australia and New Zealand, and with 2015 being our centenary year, commemorations will be as special and touching as ever. I anticipate this quilt journey - for both the quilt makers and those who come to view the finished exhibition - will be a visual reflection of the powerful emotions and memories war brings to our lives."

Entry details: Entries are to be 25cm x 25cm in size. Deadline for online submission of entry form and pictures of your quilt is March 6, 2015.

Full details are available now by visiting <http://www.lestweforgetquilts.com.au>

Australian Quilts in Public Places (AQIPP) "Light and Life"

- ♦ An initiative of The Australian Quilters Association Inc.
- ♦ 13th November - 22nd December 2015
- ♦ Whitehorse ArtSpace,
1022 Whitehorse Road, Box Hill VIC
- ♦ Closing Date for Entries - Thursday 24th September 2015

Quilters around Australia will again be able to demonstrate their talent, skills and originality in interpreting the theme "Light and Life".

This juried and judged exhibition, open to all quilters in Australia, will celebrate the United Nations International Year of Light.

AQIPP was organised in 1997 to showcase uniquely Australian textile talent and gained critical acclaim. It provided an environment for visually exciting and diverse responses to the past themes - our landscape, immigration and women's issues and United Nations International Themes.

Participants and visitors to AQIPP 2015 will again be able to share emotionally and visually many interpretations of the artists' experiences in interpreting the theme. Light is at the origin of all life. It plays a central role in human activities and culture and in the lives of all other things.

AQIPP is very pleased to announce that Brother International will continue as our major sponsor.

The other sponsors will be Embroidery Source, GJ Discount Fabrics, KraftKcolour, Reece Scannell and Victorian Textiles.

Whitehorse ArtSpace and the City of Whitehorse provide an excellent venue and continuing support of this event.
