Guess where your editor is this month? Yes, in frosty New Zealand! Loving it. Never seen so many quilting shops ...This is Lake Wanaka where our daughter got married

Wendy Williams' visit to Darwin

Both workshops were filled with the help of three quilters from Melbourne who thoroughly enjoyed the experience.

Wendy's class was another experience which could easily become addictive. Most of the feedback from participants was that they loved these workshops and perhaps we could get Wendy back again.

Thanks to the helpers Tracey Brain, Robyn Salmon, Di Clarke and everyone who made those yummy snacks.

SENIORS EXPO

DPAQ would like to thank Alisha Cook, Sue Britton, Mary Noble, and Nicky Honan for volunteering at the Seniors Expo on Friday June 3rd. Also thanks to Judy Anictomatis for arranging the shade for us.

We sold ten books of raffle tickets on the day and had several people interested in joining DPAQ.

THANKS JANELLE NORTHCOTE for making the beautiful raffle quilt. Please support the club by selling tickets, you will receive them soon.

Convergence Quilts with Jenny Molloy

14 ladies attended instruction on Ricky Tim's Convergence Quilts and had a very productive day. Everyone managed to complete the main block for a small quilt, just requiring some sashing or trims. First lady to finish the day project was Bernadette Izod, with a beautiful Purple/blue and green quilt top. Thanks to Bernadette for sending out the instructions to all present.

Another thank you to Di and Tip for bringing along their amazing quilts, giving inspiration and instruction to the ladies on Saturday. Your assistance was appreciated. I think everyone enjoyed the day and some great creations were taken home.

Cheers
Jenny Molloy

Tutor : Alison McShanag

Alissa Haight Carlton has kindly agreed for me to demonstrate how to make these quilts

We will also have a discussion about making Art Quilts and Modern Quilts

Please choose one of these quilts only

Option 1 :

Makes one 20" pillow (we will make a small wall hanging)

Materials needed:

This quilt was made with three fabrics only, one for the background and one for each set of the lines. Scraps are great for this and you can feel free to mix and match any number of different colors and fabrics.

– Fabric A – Dark Gray (background): 15" x width of fabric strip

– Fabric B – Light : 4.5" x width of fabric

– Fabric C – Contrasting: 3" x width of fabric

Pillow back fabric: (Backing fabric)

– One 20" x 20" of the fabric of your choice. I used the background fabric.

– One strip of fabric for binding – Colour of your choice

Option 2 : "This way" by Alissa Haight Carlton

Materials Needed

Fabric A: 1½ yards of background fabric

Fabrics B through N: Fourteen 5" x 5" squares (charm packs are perfect for this!) or scraps.

For both quilts
