CONDITIONS OF ENTRY

Please ensure you carefully read these conditions before completing your entry form

1. ELIGIBILITY TO ENTER:

All entrants must be residents of the Northern Territory.

An entry must not have been previously exhibited at any other exhibition including intra-state, interstate and overseas. This also applies to regional and agricultural shows. A photo of the quilt identifying its maker must not have been published, in a magazine or on the internet.

The Committee has the right to refuse any or all entries. Acceptance of an entry does not automatically guarantee display of the quilt or other item at the Exhibition.

Each quilt will be entered in one category only.

Entries must have been entirely made by the exhibitor, except for entries in the following categories:-

8.2 Long-arm quilting – 2 or more people, small quilt

8.4 Long-arm quilting, 2 or more people, large quilt

11. Collaborative Quilt

These quilts must be made by two or more people. The exhibitor must be the owner of the quilt and must acknowledge all other makers of the quilt.

Quilts must be submitted complete and in a good clean condition, including free of loose threads, animal hairs, dust and lint.

2. DEFINITIONS:

Quilt Definition:

A quilt is defined as having 3 (three) or more layers and visibly quilted through all layers at regular intervals.

Quilts must be a single unit and not framed with wood, metal or plastic etc. However triptych style or similar is allowable as long as they are connected by the hanging sleeve.

Quilting is defined as:

- Hand Quilting -- done by hand
- Machine Quilting -- done by machine.
- Commercial quilting -- payment has been made

Definition of "Professional":

A professional (advanced) Quilter is defined as someone who satisfies one or more of the following conditions :

- Has won Best of Show or 2 or more Blue Ribbons/Excellence in Quilting Awards in a major judged competition
- Has financial involvement, teaches or publishes in any medium in the field of quilting; OR
- Sells, designs or participates in any aspect of making quilts for ongoing financial gain

Definition of "Financial Gain":

Financial gain is defined as any amount above the cost of creating the quilt, cost of creating any article, design, teaching aids including samples, notes and travel expenses.

A major show is a State or Territory Guild judged exhibition or competition, a national or international competition or exhibition.

Having exhibited as Professional, amateur status cannot be resumed.

NOTE: This is the agreed definition of the Australian Council of Quilters

Definition of "Collaborative":

A collaborative quilt is any quilt where other people, additional to the exhibitor, have participated in the making and/or completion of the quilt. Participation includes any involvement at any stage of the quilt making process - cutting, piecing, appliqué, embellishment, quilting and/or bind

3. EXHIBITION ENTRIES:

Exhibition entries must be made using the on-line registration site at

<https://darwinquilters.com.au/territory-quilts-tq23-darwin/>

A maximum of one quilt per category may be submitted by an individual, two persons, or group. If an entrant wishes to enter more than one quilt in a category, the second quilt will be for Display only, not judged and entered into Category 14.

A separate online entry MUST accompany each quilt. In the event a quilt is going to be entered in two categories (ie Challenge and Quilt category) two entries must be completed.

A non-refundable registration fee of $10.00 for Members of DP&Q, and $20.00 for non-members is payable with each entry.

They should include:-

- Appropriate fees for each entry
- Description of each quilt in 50 words or fewer. Please note this information will be given to the Judge when judging your quilt. It is in your interest to state what inspired you to make the quilt and your journey during its development.

All sections of each entry form must be completed in full, including size, description, copyright, etc., and signed. Failure to do so may result in the entry not being accepted.

Online entries must be received by Friday 21st July 2023.

4. ENTRY FEES:

Entry fees are non-refundable once an entry has been accepted.

Entry fees per quilt are:

- Member $10.00
- Non-Member $20.00
- Student Free

Judge's critique fees per quilt are:

- Member $5.00
- Non-Member $10.00

Payments can be made by direct deposit to DP&Q ANZ Bank account:

BSB: 015-896

Account Number: 258685-721

Please ensure that you insert your NAME in the reference details (eg: A SMITH TQ23).

Direct deposit is preferred, and more secure. However, cash, cheque or money order can be accepted.

5. LABELLING YOUR QUILT AND QUILT CARRY/STORAGE BAG:

Please deliver your quilt in an appropriate Quilt bag. Plastic or paper shopping bags and tubes are not suitable.

Pinned securely to the front of the bag, please attach a zip lock bag or page protector with a colour photo of your entry. This is for easy identification at the close of the exhibition so that quilts and quilt carry bags match up. The photo will be returned.

Upon receipt of each entry you will be given two labels. One will be for the back of the quilt, and the other will be for the quilt carry/storage bag. The label for the back of the quilt should be safety pinned or tacked to the bottom right edge of the quilt as it faces you. If you have already labelled your quilt then you will need to cover that with the entry label or with some other fabric (calico, etc.) so that your quilt cannot be identified other than by entry number.

The label for the quilt bag should be pinned or tacked to the top centre of the bag.

6. HANGING SLEEVE:

To enable hanging, each quilt must have a 10cm (4inches) finished deep double fabric sleeve sewn to the back at the top of the quilt. No pins.

Miniatures and small quilts are to have appropriate sized sleeves also sewn to the back at the top of the quilt. Miniatures must supply their own rod. No other rods or hangers will be accepted.

Quilts without sleeves will not be displayed.

7. PHOTOGRAPHY:

Darwin Patchworkers & Quilters Inc. reserves the right to photograph, and permit photographs of all items to be taken - for DP&Q archives, for publication, including on the DP&Q website, and DP&Q Facebook page, and for any other appropriate purposes.

All entrants are to be aware that public photography will be allowed during the exhibition.

8. DELIVERY OF QUILTS:

Quilts must be delivered to the exhibition venue (DoubleTree by Hilton Esplanade) on Sunday 20th August 2023 between 2pm – 4pm. Each quilt will be checked for its category and size, etc. on delivery, so please ensure that you allow time for this procedure when delivering your quilts.

9. ROSTER DUTY:

All exhibitors in the exhibition are expected to work a roster period during the exhibition. This may include sitting at the entrance, white glove duties, selling raffle tickets and anything else required by the TQ23 Committee.

10. COPYRIGHT:

The entrant must acknowledge the source of inspiration, designer, or teacher for any quilt that is not their own original design or is not based on blocks that are regarded as being in the public domain.

The design source (original or inspired by) must be entered on the quilt information form for each quilt. The entrant is responsible for obtaining written permission and for paying any fee related to the use of copyright material, including trademarks.

Written permission to publicly display and publish your quilt must be submitted with the Entry Form.
